

Please keep KLOVE on the radio air! I find it extremely helpful in raising my four teenage boys. I am a Christian and believe that music is an important part of my life as well as my children's and I know that the positive lyrics assist them through life's struggles.